Article 10.1 A Director should be a natural person and it is not a prerequisite for a Director to hold any share of the Company.

Article 10.2 Directors shall be elected or replaced at the shareholders' general meeting and their term of office shall be three (3) years. At the expiry of the term, it shall be renewable upon re-election. A Director shall not be removed by the shareholders in a general meeting without any reason before the expiry of his term of office.

The tenure of a Director shall commence from the date of the passing of the resolution in the shareholders' general meeting until the end of the tenure of the existing Board.

Subject to the compliance with all the relevant laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders' general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his term of office (however, the Director's right to claim damages arising under any contract from his removal shall not be affected thereby).

Article 10.3 The Board and the supervisory committee of the Company are entitled to put forward proposals at the shareholders' general meeting to nominate candidates for directorship or change Directors of the Company.

In addition, shareholders individually or in aggregate holding three (3) percent or more of the total issued voting shares of the Company are entitled to put forward proposals at the shareholders' general meeting to change Directors of the Company. However, in nominating candidates for directorship, the maximum number of candidates to be nominated shall be determined at a ratio of one candidate for directorship for every three (3) percent of the total issued voting shares held, disregarding any balance less than three (3) percent.

A written notice stating the intention to nominate a candidate for directorship and the candidate's consent to be nominated shall be delivered to the Board not earlier than the day following the despatch of the notice of shareholders' general meeting for the election of Directors, and not later than seven (7) days before the shareholders' general meeting is held. The provisions of these Articles of Association apply to proposals on the nomination of candidates for directorship and change of Directors.

The cumulative voting system shall be adopted for the election of Directors (including independent Directors) of the Company. That is, for the election of Directors at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company, each voting share held by the shareholders carries votes equivalent to the total number of Directors to be elected at the shareholders' general meeting, and the number of votes which a shareholder is entitled to cast is equal to the number of shares held multiplied by the total number of directors to be elected. The votes of a shareholder may be cast on one candidate for directorship or may be cast on different candidates for directorship, provided that the number of votes cast by each shareholder for the election of directors shall not exceed the highest number of cumulative votes.

The election of Executive Directors and independent Directors of the Company shall be voted separately.

In the election of Executive Directors, the number of votes which each shareholder is entitled to cast is equal to the number of voting shares held multiplied by the number of Executive Directors to be elected. These votes may only be cast on candidates for executive directorship.

In the election of independent Directors, the number of votes which each shareholder is entitled to cast is equal to the number of voting shares held multiplied by the number of independent Directors to be elected. These votes may only be cast on candidates for independent directorship.

Whether a candidate for directorship (including independent directorship) is elected depends on the number of votes received, but the number of votes received by each elected Director must exceed half of the valid voting shares (based on the number of shares on a non-cumulative basis) held by shareholders present at the general meeting.

The Company may formulate implementation rules of the cumulative voting system.

Article 10.4 The Board should, before convening the shareholders' general meeting, disclose the information of the candidate for directorship in detail in the notice of shareholders' general meeting to ensure that the shareholders have sufficient understanding about the candidates while casting votes.

The candidate for directorship shall, before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting, give a notice in writing indicating his consent to the nomination, his undertaking as to the truthfulness and completeness of his information publicly disclosed and his assurance in due performance of director's duties after being elected. The candidate for directorship shall introduce his own background, work experience and work plan after assuming office at the shareholders' general meeting.

New directors shall sign the "Director's Declaration and Undertaking" within one month after his appointment by the shareholders' general meeting and shall submit to the Board and the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed for record.

Article 10.5 Directors shall actively take part in relevant training to understand the rights, obligations and responsibilities of a director. They shall be acquainted with relevant laws and regulations and shall grasp relevant knowledge which a director ought to possess.

Article 10.6 Unless otherwise regulated by these Articles of Association or lawfully authorized by the Board, no Director shall, in his own name, act on behalf of the Company or the Board. While a Director acts in his own name, he shall declare his stance and identity in advance if the third party would reasonably perceive that such Director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board.

Article 10.7 Directors shall attend the Board meeting with serious and responsible attitude and shall clearly express their opinions on issues that are to be discussed. If a Director is unable to attend the Board meeting in person, he shall appoint another Director in writing to vote on his behalf according to his view and the appointing Director shall be solely liable.

If a Director fails to attend two Board meetings consecutively in person or fails to appoint another Director to attend such meetings on his behalf, he shall be deemed to be in default of performing his duty. The Board should recommend his removal to the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 10.8 A Director may submit his resignation before the expiry of his term. He should deliver a written resignation report to the Board.

Article 10.9 If a Director's resignation will result in the number of Directors falling below the minimum presented by law, his resignation shall not come into force until the vacancy is filled by a new Director. The remaining Directors shall convene a shareholders' general meeting as soon as possible for the election of a new Director in order to fill the vacancy arising from the resignation. The tenure of the newly elected Director shall expire until the end of the tenure of the existing Board. Before any decision in regard to the election of Director is made at the shareholders' general meeting, the functions and powers of the Director who has tendered his resignation and the rest of the Board shall be reasonably restricted.

Save and except the circumstances described in the preceding paragraph, a Director's resignation shall take effect upon the submission of the resignation report to the Board.

When there is a vacancy in the Board due to reasons other than a Director's resignation, the Board may appoint a person to fill that vacancy. The appointee may exercise the functions and powers of Director until a new Director is elected by the shareholders' general meeting. The requirements stipulated in the preceding provisions of this Article shall be applicable to the tenure of the new Director.

Article 10.10 A Director whose tenure has not expired shall be liable to compensate the Company for its loss due to his resignation without approval.

Article 10.11 The Company can purchase liability insurance for the Directors with the approval of the shareholders' general meeting, excluding liabilities incurred by the Directors due to violations of laws and regulations and the requirements under these Articles of Association.
