To the best of the Directors' knowledge, information and belief having made all reasonable enquiry, Jingu Trust and its respective ultimate beneficial owner(s) are third parties independent of the Company and its connected persons.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE SUBSCRIPTIONS

The approval procedures of the subscriptions of wealth management products by the Company are in compliance with the relevant requirements of "Management Measures for Conducting Entrusted Wealth Management Transactions" (《委託理財管理制度》) of the Company. The subscriptions of the Jingu Trust Wealth Management Products are made from the idle self-owned funds of the Group. Such use of the idle self-owned funds for entrusted wealth management is beneficial for enhancing efficiency of use of idle self-owned funds of the Group and will not adversely affect the daily operation and the principal business development of the Group as well as the interests of medium and small investors of the Company.

The Board considers that the subscriptions of the Jingu Trust Wealth Management Products are on normal commercial terms, fair and reasonable, and in the interests of the Company and Shareholders as a whole.

IMPLICATION UNDER THE LISTING RULES

Each of the Jingu Trust Wealth Management Agreements by itself does not constitute a discloseable transaction of the Company under Rule 14.06 of the Listing Rules. However, pursuant to Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules, when the subscription amounts under the Jingu Trust Wealth Management Agreements are aggregated, the relevant applicable percentage ratios (as defined under the Listing Rules) exceed 5% but are below 25%. Therefore, the transactions under the Jingu Trust Wealth Management Agreements, on an aggregate basis, constitute discloseable transactions of the Company and are subject to the reporting and announcement requirements under the Listing Rules.
